Department of Energy | Office of Environmental Management

Success Through Academic Research Scholarship (STARS)

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Office of Environmental Management (EM) Success Through Academic Research Scholarship (STARS) provides opportunities for undergraduate students from qualifying institutions pursuing degrees in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics that support EM research and operations.

Areas of Interest

Environmental Management | Soil & Groundwater | Tank Waste Deactivation & Decommissioning | Robotics | Cybersecurity Advanced Manufacturing | Machine Learning | Artificial Intelligence

Provisions

During this two-year program, you will receive:

- Up to $36,000/year in tuition assistance
- $32,000/year stipend, including housing allowance
- $5,000/year for required educational expenses such as conferences and workshops
- Two paid 10-week summer internships (weekly stipends with housing, transportation, and travel allowances)

Eligibility

- US Citizen age 18 or older
- 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale
- Be enrolled as an undergraduate student at a qualifying institution pursuing a STEM degree
- Graduating between May - Dec 2029

Scan for more information about EM STARS!

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education

EM_STARS@orise.orau.gov

orise.orau.gov/em-stars/