

“Diversity and Difference: Let’s Talk”

School of Social Work Brown Bag Series

The School of Social work invites you to attend its Brown Bag Lunch Series on Global Diversity. Twice each semester, faculty and students on Commerce, Mesquite and McKinney campuses will participate in bold conversations about difference and diversity affecting our community and world.

GLOBAL DIVERSITY

From our neighborhoods and schools to our workplaces and virtual communities, we are much more likely to interact with people who are different than ourselves than at any time in history. The difference that exists within us all, our varied backgrounds, styles, perspectives, values, and beliefs are assets to groups and organization

Upcoming Brown Bag Lunch: Invisible Disabilities: Let’s Talk about Mental Health

November 28th - December 1st

*Monday 11/28- (12pm-1pm) Commerce/MPLX (*Commerce will be hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Keck ***only if you signed up***)*

Thursday 12/1-(12pm-1pm)-Commerce/CHEC

We are now accepting proposals for Spring 2017 Diversity and Difference: Let’s Talk” School of Social Work Brown Bag Series. Students are encouraged to submit proposals via email to gracie.brownell@tamuc.edu.

Name of the presenter: _____ Title of Presentation: _____

Description (include what information the audience will learn from this presentation / discussion)