TSCPA's Bylaws state that members are assigned to local chapters based upon their principal office address. If you reside in a chapter different from the one where you work, you can specify a preference to be a member of that chapter. Contact member services with questions or to specify a preference. Member services can be reached by calling 1-800-428-0272 (972/687-8500 in Dallas). To view a list of TSCPA chapters, visit www.tscpa.org.

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS: Includes part-time and full-time undergraduate and graduate students from two- and four-year colleges or universities majoring in accounting, finance, or other business-related majors. Upon graduation, a student becomes a candidate.

TSCPA will underwrite one fiscal year of student membership for you!

(Note: Dues renewable June 1.)

I hereby make application for admission to the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

I will abide by the Bylaws and the Code of Professional Ethics of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants upon acceptance. (Refer to the TSCPA home page at www.tscpa.org for a complete text of the TSCPA Bylaws.)

I hereby certify that I have read and meet the membership requirements for student membership.
