

*Announcing the LeoTeach

$$$ for Scholars Fair

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

Keith D. McFarland Science Building Atrium

1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Competitions for Prospective Math or Science Teacher Candidates

1st Prize for Each Competition: Course Tuition

Other awards: $25 for Submitting an Entry (One per student)

Periodic Drawings for Prizes

- ❖ Competition 1. Design the LeoTeach Logo with an A&M Commerce identity
 - A one-page graphic
 - Mounted on a display board. Available Tuesdays & Thursday in EdS 126
 - To be set up by 12:45 on the day of the Fair: April 23
 - Narrative explaining the symbols and symbolism
- ❖ Competition 2. Write a compelling essay: Those who can, teach. . .
 - Countering the classic putdown: Those who can't, teach
 - A one-pager, enlarged for visibility
 - To be set up by 12:45 on the day of the Fair: April 23
 - Mounted on a free-standing display board
 - Copies for those visiting the display
- ❖ Winners will be determined by
 - the popular vote of Fair attendees (weighted 50%)
 - One vote per attendee
 - Voting: 1:15 – 2:15
 - ratings by a panel of judges (weighted 50%)
- ❖ Winners will be announced at 3:00 p.m. at the end of the Fair.

LeoTeach: A College of Education and Human Services initiative in collaboration with the College of Science, Engineering, Agriculture and to recruit and train Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Teachers.

❖ Questions and Concerns: Donna Tavener 903.886.5537

❖ Light refreshments will be served.