

The Finance Mentorship Program

Faculty Advisor

Dr. Ramya R. Aroul
Assistant Professor of Finance
Department of Accounting & Finance
Ramya.aroul@tamuc.edu

Dear all,

The Finance Society at TAMUC invites applications for the introductory cohort of “The Finance Mentorship Program.”

Once the student/s is finalized, s/he would be paired up with mentors from the industry and/or finance faculty. The applications for this mentorship program close on December 1, 2020. The students interested in applying should send their CV and a statement of purpose to fin.tamuc@gmail.com with “The Finance Mentorship Program” on the subject line.

Eligibility

1. Undergraduate juniors/seniors majoring in Finance or
2. Any graduate student majoring or minoring in
 - a. Finance
 - b. Financial planning
 - c. Real estate

About - The Finance Society

The Finance Society @ TAMUC is a student organization focused on assisting any TAMUC student interested in banking, financial planning, investments, real estate, or any other topic/area in finance in their professional, academic, and social development.

Sincerely,

Maria Vaswadawala, President (MS Finance student)
Madison Schaefer, Vice-President (BBA Finance student)
Alejandro Nevarez, Vice-President (BBA Finance student)
Monika Soni, Secretary (MS Business Analytics student)

No Application Fees