

HELP WANTED
SITE COORDINATORS
GREENVILLE ISD

Communities In Schools of the Dallas Region (CISDR) is seeking motivated, intuitive, service focused individuals to fill team positions based at high-need schools in the Greenville, Texas area. We are an educational non-profit providing academic, attendance and behavioral guidance to under-served at-risk students on campus, every day.

Applicants must be open to the diverse nature of a school campus and be comfortable engaging children, parents, teachers and community resources. Interventions are provided and housed on the school site daily, and include solution based counseling, tutoring, volunteer management, parental guidance, file documentation and area community networking. The ideal candidate is able to work independent of daily supervision, manage a nominal budget, and collaborate with school faculty on behalf of the CISDR program.

We are looking for: Site Coordinators

- Minimum 4 year or graduate-level degree in social/human service or educational field, minimum 1 year experience with at-risk adolescents and file documentation.
- Self-starter with an outgoing personality and a keen ability to build solid work relationships.
- Training and supervision/coaching is provided to all site based staff, regardless of experience.
- Must have current and valid driver license

Benefits:

CISDR offers a competitive salary, comprehensive benefit package, paid school holidays (up to 8 weeks) and experienced supportive leadership.

*Clear background check and references are a must.
