

STUDENT INTERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Excelacom is a rapidly-growing company with great opportunities for professional growth and accomplishment. We offer technology solutions to help businesses transform in a digital economy. Using state-of-the-art technologies, such as Java, enterprise middleware, distributed object frameworks, workflow, and rules-based processing, we help our customers reach their goals by delivering innovations that improve the way they do business.

As we grow we are always on the lookout for the BEST and BRIGHTEST to join our team. If you are up to the challenge, we will provide the environment for success.

Student Internships

- Located in Reston, VA (approximately 20 minutes from downtown Washington DC) a beautiful part of VA looking over the Shenandoah Valley
- Housing (apartment) will be provided
- Compensation depending on qualifications
- Interviews will take place on campus or in DFW area, depending on managements schedule
- Work with Fortune 500 companies as well as leading edge technology providers

General Qualification Requirements (applies to all positions)

- | | |
|---|---|
| • US Citizen or Permanent Resident | • GPA 3.5 minimum |
| • Excellent verbal and written communication skills | • Prior knowledge of telecom industry helpful |

Position Specific Qualification Requirements

Business Analyst

- Degree in any business related area
- Proficient in Excel, Word and PowerPoint

Technical Analyst

- Degree in Computer Science, Information Systems, or related field
- Proficient in software development or software testing
- Preferred: Java Skills
- Also Helpful: XML, SQL, Access

For more information about Excelacom please visit www.excelacom.com or find us on Facebook.

To be put on the list to visit with Excelacom's management and apply for this opportunity please email Brenda.Morris@tamuc.edu; please include your name, phone number and email address.