

SASP at TAMU-C wants to collaborate with your organization!

WHAT IS SASP?

FOLLOW US!

@sasp_tamuc

@sasp_tamuc

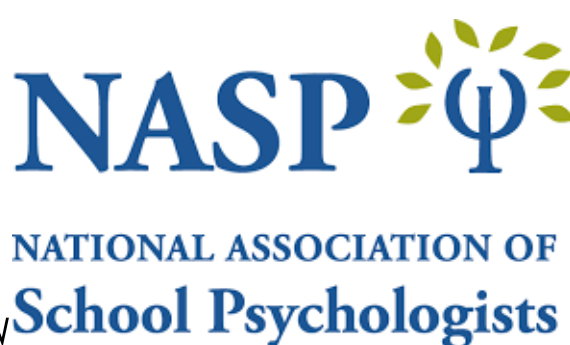

sasp tamuc

Student Affiliates in School Psychology (SASP) is an organization that strives to educate collegiate students of issues related to school psychology as well as supports the involvement and participation of activities that will improve School Psychology practice in the future. Our Website for more info

<https://sites.google.com/leomail.tamuc.edu/tamu-c-sasp-website/home>

WHAT IS THIS FOR?

The National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) organizes National School Psychologist Week (NSPW) to highlight the important work school psychologists and other educators do to help all students thrive. Allyship is one of the themes of NSPW (November 9-13)

WHAT IS ALLYSHIP?

Allyship refers to "raising up the importance of our work advancing social justice and equity for students and their families, especially those who experience systemic injustice and marginalization" (Leveraging the "A" in #SPAW2020 as Part of NSPW).

WHAT WE WANT FROM YOUR ORGANIZATION:

We would like to practice allyship with your organization by collaborating and receiving insight on how you all work in advancing social justice and equity. We ask that you answer the following questions via a 5 minute (or less) video and send it to tamucsasp@gmail.com by November 8, 2020 at 12 pm.

1. In your own words, what is social justice and equity?
2. What kinds of social injustice and inequities have you encountered during your college experience?
3. How does your organization advance social justice and equity at TAMUC?
4. Has your organization collaborated with others in advancing social justice and equity? If so, in what ways?
5. Does your organization want to express some concerns with regards to Texas A&M University-Commerce specifically? If yes, what?

THIS FLYER WAS CREATED BY CHAIR MEMBERS OF SASP: HANNAH HIGHTOWER AND KARRIA THURMON

Contact info for any comments, questions, or concerns:

hhightower@leomail.tamuc.edu or kthurmon@leomail.tamuc.edu