

Latinx Lions

Monthly

September 2021

Monthly Newsletter

Texas A&M University - Commerce

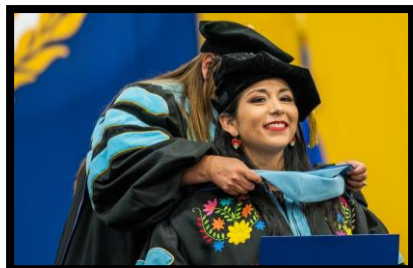

The Office of Latinx Engagement & Outreach (LEO) team, Dr. Fred Fuentes, & Patricia Bazan are here to meet with families, support students, engage with the community and ensure that all of the resources are available to students, whether they are US Citizens, International students, DACA/Undocumented, recent high school graduates or students wanting to re-start their academic careers!

For more information, to make an appointment or to connect, please contact Dr. Fuentes at Latinx@tamuc.edu

Spotlight on Helpful A&M-Commerce Organizations

The Latino Student Initiatives Committee University leaders that facilitate surveys, discussions and events to serve the fastest growing student and community population in the state, region & university. The LSIC will host a few events during the semester, including the Latino Student & professional staff mixer, Oct 12th, RSC, Conference Rooms A, B, & C. More details in the October newsletter!

The Latino Staff & Faculty Association assists the professional staff & faculty increase representation of diverse, bilingual professionals and leaders on campus. The LSFA welcomes all races, ethnicities and national origins, including A&M-Commerce alumni, community members, or current staff/faculty to join! Contact Dr. Rodriguez robert.rodriguez@tamuc.edu or Dr. Fuentes fred.fuentes@tamuc.edu

Spotlight on A & M - Commerce Offices

The Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships consists of a variety of programs including scholarships, federal and state grants, and federal and state work-study programs. Financial aid is available to degree-seeking students who complete a FAFSA (US Citizens/Permanent US residents) or TASFA (Texas HS graduate) based on their eligibility. Please reach out to fao.web@tamuc.edu for more information.

Counseling Center mental health staff provide individual, couples, and group counseling, outreach & prevention education, consultations and masters level training for future clinicians. Individual counseling can help you deal with many personal topics including: Depression/Anxiety, Grief/Loss, Substance misuse, Suicidal thoughts, & Stress management. Call 903.886.5145 to learn more or schedule an appointment and for 24/7 crisis assessment.

Calendar of events for October!

- | | |
|----------|---|
| 10.6.21 | LEO Staff will provide a FREE Zoom Informational meeting for students and parents regarding Financial Aid, Grants and Scholarships for the 2021-2022 academic year! Bilingual (English/Spanish) |
| 10.12.21 | Latino Student, Staff & Faculty mixer! Join us from 3pm to 5pm for an opportunity to engage with professional staff, win prizes and hear our guest speakers! |
| 10.16.21 | Meet us at the game! Homecoming Week 11 th – 16 th ! |
| 10.30.21 | Mane Event Preview Day! LEO will provide a bilingual informational session for families & students. |