Ethics: A Musical Comedy

Combining over 40 years of counseling experience with an extensive background in music and theatre Tim Anderson, MS, LPC, Gordon Leeman, MS, CRC, and Meredith Jeppson have created this ethics masterpiece described by many participants as “the best ethics presentation ever” The program serves up just the right combination of music, fun, and ethics.

Presentation Objectives

- 1) Identify and define the guiding ethical principles for counselors, psychologists, social workers and other health care professionals.
- 2) Provide a series of satirical vignettes depicting ethical dilemmas in order to foster introspection regarding personal ethical issues.
- 3) Through satire, humor, and music, attendees will come to appreciate how critical ethical conduct is in a professional's life. Expectations and responsibilities are made clear in each entertaining vignette.

Ethics: A Musical Comedy is quickly being heralded as the most popular Ethics seminar in Texas. The tuneful and nostalgic ethics seminar presents complex ethical scenarios as expertly performed parodies of some of the greatest music of our time. Songs from Elvis, James Taylor, Eminem, Frank Sinatra, Disney, The Eagles, Randy Newman, Marry Poppins, My Fair Lady, Guys and Dolls, Fiddler on the Roof, and many others are transformed to tell the stories of counselors facing ethical dilemmas.

Song Parodies and Issues

“Ethical Principles” (“My Favorite Things”) Basic ethical principles are defined.

“Bill them to the Limit” (“Take it to the Limit”) Billing practices.

“It's Unethical” (“It's Impossible”) (“I Think I Love You”) Sexual misconduct.

“Can do” (“Fugue for Tinhorns”) Who is the client, Role Fidelity.

“Oompa-Loompa Doompadee-Doo” The Oompa Loompas are the voice of moral Authority

“Supervision” (“Summer Lovin”) Inappropriate supervision practices and duty to report misconduct.

“How did I survive” (“I will Survive”) Harm to self/others

“Supererogation” (“Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious”) Doing more than required or expected.

and many, many, many more...
