

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic

Licensed Clinical Social Worker

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Metrocare is seeking to fill part and full-time positions for Staff Licensed Clinical Social Worker with experience working with family and children of Veterans. In collaboration with a multidisciplinary team of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, case managers, and Veteran outreach workers, the social worker will provide direct care to Veterans and their families including children. Primary responsibilities will be conducting psychosocial assessments of the Veteran's family/children and implementing evidence-based treatments in family and couples modality as well as working with children. With growth of this ground-breaking clinic, training and supervision involvement may increase.

The successful applicant will demonstrate coursework and experience providing evidence-based treatments with children and families (e.g., TF-CBT, CBT, Integrated Behavioral Couples Therapy) who are impacted by Veterans' issues including posttraumatic stress and life transition stressors. Demonstrated experience providing clinical supervision is preferred. Candidates must have a master's degree in Social Work from a CSWE-accredited program and have experience working with Veterans or active-duty military and families. Veterans or family members of Veterans are encouraged to apply. Candidates must have a valid, unrestricted license authorizing independent level practice in Clinical Social Work. Licensed Marriage and Family Therapy and Supervisor designations are preferred.

The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic is part of the Cohen Veterans Network, a national nonprofit (501c3) network of clinics creating an opportunity for Veterans and their families to receive free or low-cost outpatient mental health treatment. CVN was established to support initiatives relating to the prevention, treatment, and study of mental health issues affecting post-9/11 Veterans, members of the National Guard and Reserve, and their family member.
