

Faculty Judges are still needed for the upcoming Research Symposiums

Federation Graduate Student Research Symposium

Still needed are 4 Faculty Judges

Presentations will be judged online on a Federation Symposium Google Site on Friday, April 15, 2022 (or earlier that week). Score sheets/link with assigned presenters will be sent out to judges.

Judges will have until Tuesday, April 19, 2022 to submit scores. Once you have completed scoring your assigned students, your duties as judge will be complete.

You are invited to log back into the Federation Symposium Google Site when it officially opens to view all graduate student presentations and the winners of this year's symposium. This link will remain active for some time after this date, as well.

If you are interested as serving as a Faculty Judge for the Federation Research Symposium please complete the registration link below.

<https://dms.tamuc.edu/Forms/FGSRS>

Annual Research Symposium

Still needed are 14 Faculty Judges

Poster and Oral presentations will be in-person at the Rayburn Student Center, Tuesday, April 19th, 1:30-5:00 PM.

Each judge will be assigned 3 students to judge. Judges will be given a rubric to use for scoring and will enter scores within an online platform on laptops provided in a designated Judges Room set aside for this purpose.

Scores will be calculated inside the platform to determine winners and feedback will be sent to all presenters via email.

Awards Ceremony is scheduled for the same day, April 19th, at 5:30 PM on the 3rd Floor Terrace of the Nursing and Health Sciences Bldg. Hors d'oeuvres will be served.

If you are interested in serving as a Faculty Judge for the Annual Research Symposium please complete the registration link below.

<https://dms.tamuc.edu/Forms/RSR>

For those of you that have volunteered to judge students research presentations, thank you for your time and dedication to promoting research for our students.

